SETUP

1. Secure the base pole

Dig a hole around 25cm deep and insert the base pole.

Twist the pole into firm sand until the depth sticker is just below ground level.

Tightly pack sand around the base pole.

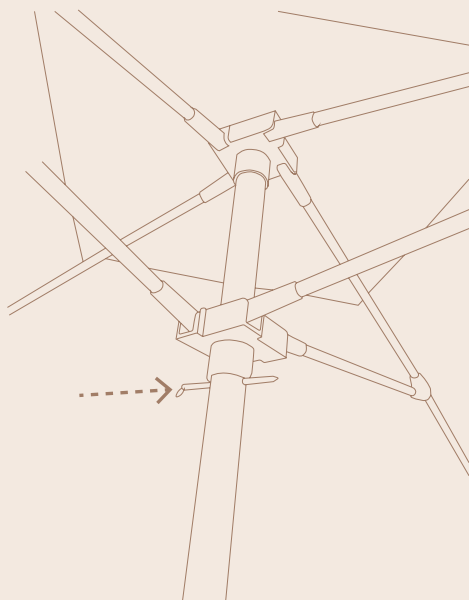

2. Open the canopy

A. Hold the cabana upside down and check that all legs are separated with no tangles.

B. If needed, slightly shake the canopy as you push the slider up and raise the cabana.

C. Ensure the pin is placed through the hole to secure the canopy.

3. Secure the canopy

A. Place the canopy into the base pole.

B. Once upright, check that all legs are hanging downward.

IMPORTANT: All four legs should just touch the ground. If the legs are higher off the ground screw the cabana base pole further into the sand.

4. Fill the sand pockets

Add a few handfuls of sand in leg bag before filling each pocket.

Adjust the legs so they are straight. For added security, use the included pegs (hammer not included).

PACK DOWN

1. Empty sand pockets

Keep cabana in the upright base pole and empty all the sand pockets.

2. Collapse the canopy

Stand under the cabana, support the canopy frame and pull the metal pin out to collapse the canopy.

3. Hook the pockets on top

Fold the four sand pockets on the top of the canopy. If you are unable to reach, remove the upper part of the cabana and do this step on the ground.

4. Remove canopy from base pole

Remove the canopy from the base pole. Place the canopy, base pole and accessories into the bag. Twist the canopy fabric around the frame to make it more compact.
